24/7 SERVICE

In business, a major disaster can strike and disrupt your operations at any time. In addition, a disaster situation can bring your business operations to a halt for an extended period of time, which sometimes can lead to having to close your doors if not handled with urgency. At Absolute Restoration, our IICRC certified commercial restoration specialists will properly restore your business property, quickly bring back your profitability and even handle your insurance claim from start to finish. Don't trust just anyone, trust our certifications, experience and customer service to handle a major loss for your business.

We can minimize profit loss. A business interruption means a profit interruption. Our commercial restoration process is designed to quickly get you back to business with a fast and easy process of restoration services.

Quick emergency response to your disaster site. To minimize costs of your loss, a quick response is critical. As a commercial customer, we take priority in efficiently restoring your operations. We offer services 24/7 so that we can begin your recovery immediately.

Don't be another statistic. The Institute for Business and Home Safety estimates that 80% of businesses that do not recover from a disaster within one month are likely to go out of business.

Make Absolute Restoration part of your recovery plan. According to Harris Interactive, 28% of businesses have no plan in place. We handle your disaster restoration from start to finish from the insurance claim to the demolition to the complete rebuild. We also can help you set up a disaster recovery plan for major potential losses to your business.
